

CONSULTATION- HSP-02

We accept our duty under the current edition of the Health and Safety (Consultation with Employees) Regulations to consult you on health and safety matters, particularly regarding:

- Any measures that may substantially affect your health and safety.
- Our arrangements for obtaining the assistance of a competent person to help us manage health and safety.
- Information about risks to your health and safety and preventative measures.
- The planning and organisation of any health and safety training that you will need to work safely.
- The health and safety consequences of the introduction of new technologies into the workplace.

We will be consulting you directly.

You will be provided with such information as is necessary to enable you to participate fully and effectively in the consultation. Such information will be provided by the means most appropriate to the matters and circumstances concerned. The main means of consultation is the Foreman/Operatives meeting. Representatives from the company's various activities will attend the meetings.

Other means of consultation may include, but will not be limited to, the following: -

- Conversations with individuals.
- Information displayed on notice boards.
- Letters attached to payslips.

We encourage all employees to take an active interest in health and safety matters and welcome positive suggestions for improvement. If you would like to raise a matter for discussion, you should bring this to the attention of the Contract Director.

STEVE YOUNG.
